

Why Do I Do Art?

Art is food for the soul. When things (like a mother dying, or a husband in the hospital for a heart bypass) go wrong I have my sketch book and paints out. I did the best things of my life when my mother was dying. As I am an emotional happy person I dream my paintings and they are all I hope that you agree colorful, joyful and full of life.

Carol Thaw 05-03-2011