

Why Do I Do Art?

I was born an artist says my Mother and it is the only thing that captivated my attention. When first given crayons, I worked them over each other, smeared to blend and scratched away with a paperclip. In Kindergarten my teacher told my Mother of a free art school. I have been at it ever since. For the past 30 years I have used art to carry a message mostly about saving our fragile environment.

Judith Schwab 05-03-2011