

Why Do I Do Art

I don't Do art. I paint and I use my hands to make things. Why? Because I cannot stop. Everything I see, everything I experience comes to my brain is light, color, form and I am painting it from the moment I wake up. Whether I am at the canvas, or just sitting in a car, every contemplative moment is spent painting.

Patricia May 03, 2011